Comparative Review of Foundations and Reasons of the vision of God

Fathollah Najjarzadegan*

Associate Professor of Tehran University

(Received: 29 June 2006, Accepted: 27 June 2007)

Abstract

Ancient dispute of Islamic sects about the vision of God is the result of theological and commentary foundations. The importance of this subject is to reveal and review of these foundations. Shia' doesn't accept the vision of God and interpret appearances of verses of Qura'n on the basis of rational reasons. Ashaere believe the vision of God in the world and its final occurrence in the next world and regard it as the result of verses of Qura'n, sequenced texts and precedents' opinions. In this dispute, intellect domain and its authority occur in interpretation of verses and traditions among sects. The verity and falsehood of taking impression of Shiite from Moa'tazilite will be examined in foundations and reasons of vision and also claims about this matter.

Keywords: vision of God, verse, tradition, reason foundations.
